ALASKA PENINSULA AREA

The Alaska Peninsula Area includes all Pacific Ocean waters of Alaska between a line extending southeast (135°) from the tip of Kupreanof Point and the longitude of the tip of Cape Sarichef, and all Bering Sea waters of Alaska east of the longitude of the tip of Cape Sarichef and south of the latitude of the tip of Cape Menshikof. [See map on preceding page.]

Customary and Traditional Use Determinations:

Alaska Peninsula/Ivanof Bay/Perryville areas. Residents of the Alaska Peninsula Area and the communities of Ivanof Bay and Perryville may take halibut for customary and traditional uses.

Residents of the Alaska Peninsula Area may take fish for customary and traditional uses.

Special Provisions:

NO SUBSISTENCE FISHING PERMIT REQUIRED. You can take fish at any time without a subsistence fishing permit, except salmon, rainbow trout, and steelhead trout, unless restricted in the following regulations. If you incidentally take rainbow trout and steelhead trout in other subsistence net fisheries or through the ice, you may retain them for subsistence purposes.

You may take salmon, trout and char only with a subsistence fishing permit. You may take no more than 250 salmon for subsistence purposes, unless otherwise specified on your subsistence fishing permit.

You may take halibut for subsistence purposes only by a single handheld line with no more than two hooks attached. The daily harvest limit for halibut is two fish, and the possession limit is two daily harvest limits. You may not possess sport-taken and subsistence-taken halibut on the same day.

Recordkeeping/Permit. You must keep a record on the reverse side of the permit of subsistence-caught fish, and complete the record immediately upon taking the fish. This permit record must be returned no later than October 31.

Regulations:

You may take salmon at any time, except:

- Within 24 hours before and within 12 hours following each open weekly commercial salmon fishing period within a 50-mile radius of the area open to commercial salmon fishing.
- As specified on a subsistence fishing permit.

Regulations (continued):

You may take salmon by seine, gillnet, rod and reel, or with gear specified on a subsistence fishing permit.

You may not subsistence fish for salmon in the following waters:

- Russell Creek and Nurse Lagoon and within 500 yards outside the mouth of Nurse Lagoon.
- Trout Creek and within 500 yards outside its mouth.

You may take fish other than salmon by gear listed in this part unless restricted by a subsistence fishing permit.

Gillnet Provisions

You may not use a set gillnet exceeding 100 fathoms in length.
